A Wealth of Cultural Heritage

Daegu is a city of living legacy and charm embracing 3,000 years of history. Nestled within wooded mountains and the Gumhohang river flowing around it, Daegu is an ideal place to convene and relax. The congress participants are assured of a warm welcome and a comfortable stay in Daegu. There are many historic legacies registered as the World Heritage sites by UNESCO around Daegu.

INVITATION

Byungjin Kim

Chairman
ICE 2012 DAEGU

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Entomological Society of Korea, the Korean Society of Applied Entomology, the Korean Society of Sericultural Science, and the Apicultural Society of Korea, the Local Organizing Committee for the 24th International Congress of Entomology cordially invite you to attend this major event, to be held in Daegu, Republic of Korea, between August 19-25, 2012.

We have been working extremely hard to develop a truly dynamic forum for the exchange of new information and ideas of significance to entomologists of all persuasions from around the world. We are convinced, that this congress will fit into the series of these developing gatherings of our entomologists, and outstanding as much as its content and atmosphere are concerned.

With this landmark event, we celebrate the first International Congress of Entomology to be staged in Korea. We encourage our colleagues throughout the world to use this opportunity to get a glimpse of Korean peninsula's astonishing insect fauna, to engage with its entomologists and to enjoy South Korean hospitality.

We look forward to welcoming you to Daegu in 2012.
